

Caspar McCloud & The Ministry of Three

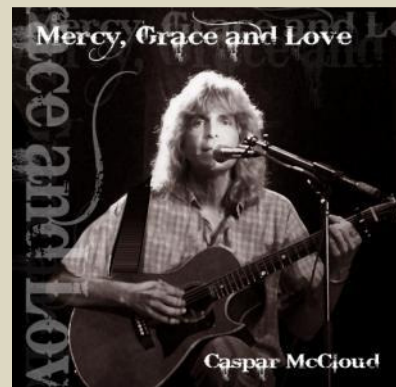

Caspar McCloud is an outstanding guitarist, singer, and songwriter. Mentored by some legendary artists like Peter Gabriel, Phil Keaggy, Paul Burgess of 10CC fame and Michael McBride from The Raspberries. Caspar's first release came from the UK in 1979. "Messin Round" went on to become a much sought after 45 recording by vinyl collectors worldwide. Caspar came back to the U.S. and signed on with Atlantic Records after leaving his home in England for New York City and was touted as the next Jimi Hendrix by Ahmet Ertegun, the CEO of Atlantic Records. Caspar produced two albums with Atlantic and has a large catalog of unpublished music from those days. Caspar has toured and recorded with many celebrities and friends including Michael Shrieve, and Michael Carabella of Santana, Matt Bissonette, (of Joe Satriani band- G3 and Ringo Starr band), Eddie Zynn (of Fog Hat and Hall and Oats), Kenny Passarelli, (Elton John, Joe Walsh, and Hall and Oates), Phil Keaggy, (Glass Harp, Solo works), and Peter Furler and Jody Davis of the Newsboys just to name a few. As an accomplished musician, Caspar has completed seven published musical works since his departure from the secular music world.
